About Children's Research University

The Conception of the Children's Research University was first revealed by the then hon'ble Chief Minister of Gujarat and Present Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi. Children's Research University, is the only university in the world that is the first of its kind, devoted exclusively to Child Centric research & Innovation, Education, and development concerning children guided by the philosophy that "Every Child Matters,". The University envisions a holistic upbringing of every child encompassing Physical, Mental, intellectual, Moral, Social Emotional, and Spiritual dimensions so as to nurture individuals who can contribute meaningfully to society and attain self-realization. The University's unique scope begins from "Garbha Sanskār" prenatal education and value cultivation to the development of the ideal citizen. It integrates education, research, training, and extension as its four foundational pillars to actualize this holistic vision. The vision of the university is "to establish Children's Research University as a leading research University conducting studies for holistic development of children. University has established five centers namely Centre of Research, Centre of Education, Centre of Training, Centre of Extension and Centre of Toy Innovation.

The Centre of Research is the backbone of the university. It serves as the core academic and research hub of the University. It promotes high-quality, interdisciplinary research in the areas of child development since the inception to adolescence. The CoR encourages collaborations across universities, research institutions, industries, and international bodies to strengthen research on child development and learning systems.

Located at Sector-29, Gandhinagar, the University continues to be a beacon of innovative research and transformative practices in the field of child development and education.

About the Faculty of Education, Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya

The Faculty of Education at Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya is an integral component of the century-old educational endeavour of Sarva Vidyalaya Kelavani Mandal, a public trust founded in 1919 by Pujya Chhaganbha on the guiding principle "Kar Bhala Hoga Bhala" and presently led by Shri Vallabhbhai M. Patel; the Trust has grown into one of Gujarat's foremost educational organisations, serving over 52,000 learners from kindergarten to doctoral levels and maintaining a steadfast commitment to value-based and inclusive education. Established by the Government of Gujarat under Act No. 21 of 2007 and approved by the UGC in March 2009, Kadi Sarva Vishwavidyalaya was constituted to provide need-based, contemporary curricula, to promote research that contributes to socio-economic advancement, and to ensure equitable access to higher education irrespective of caste, creed or religion. The Faculty of Education is dedicated to preparing professionally competent, reflective and research-oriented teachers through a rigorous integration of theoretical foundations, pedagogical practice and empirical inquiry; it emphasizes ethical practice, social responsibility and innovation in addressing the evolving demands of schooling. The Faculty currently operates four constituent colleges: S. S. Patel College of Education, Gandhinagar (established 2002); R. H. Patel English Medium B.Ed. College, Gandhinagar (established 2003); S. V. College of Education, Kadi (established 2002); and Soorajba College of Education for Women, Kadi (established 2004)—which together provide enriched learning experiences, structured practicum, and opportunities for research, thereby advancing the Faculty's mission to produce skilled educators who contribute to the quality and equity of education in the region.
